

ASA Analysis & Communication, Inc. (ASA) provides environmental consulting services to industry and governmental organizations. ASA specializes in the aquatic sciences with particular emphasis on quantitative evaluations related to water quality and aquatic ecology. ASA provides the full range of services needed to complete environmental studies and assessments including, study design, implementation, data management and analysis, report writing and preparation, as well as hearings and/or litigation support.

POSITION TITLE: Technician 2; Full-time
LOCATION: Long Island, NY
PAY RANGE: $11.00 - $13.00/hour + lodging (depending on assignment, experience, and travel)

DESCRIPTION:

Field technicians responsible for collection of biological samples at a power plant on Long Island. Duties include but are not limited to collection of samples (operation of barrel sampler) and data recording. These duties will be performed under the direction of a site leader and in compliance with standardized procedures, quality control measures, and records management.

The positions require travel to the job site on central Long Island, NY Position duration March 30th through August 31st. If you have questions send email to bfost@asaac.com.

QUALIFICATIONS:

EDUCATION: H.S. Graduate; (interest in biology, environmental science, ecology/field biology, fisheries or related area of study preferred).

EXPERIENCE: Will train on the job.

OTHER: Willingness to work a concentrated, variable schedule and nighttime hours. Comfortable with outdoor working conditions. The applicant needs to have reliable transportation. Lodging will be provided if travel exceeds 1 hour to the site.

PLEASE SEND E-MAIL SUMMARIZING YOUR BACKGROUND AND INTEREST TO:

bfost@asaac.com

POSTING DATE: 10 February, 2015