

Department of Environmental Protection

Summer Internship opportunities available

JOB TITLE: Engineering Scientific and Technical Intern

Application Period Closes: March 1st, 2018

Hourly Rate: $13.23

Employment Period: May 7th, 2018 – August 31st, 2018

The Department of Environmental Protection has 93 internships available working in program areas including: Airquality, Abandoned Mine Reclamation, Clean water and Waterways and wetlands. Positions are available statewide and job duties and responsibilities vary by individual posting.

A list of the openings can be found at the following link:

<https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/pabureau/transferjobs>

For a detailed description of the job responsibilities, please click on the link under the heading description of work. Because position descriptions vary, internships must be applied for individually at desired work locations. There is no limit to the number of positions which can be applied for.